Santa Monica, CA, February 20, 2019: The Santa Monica Chamber of Commerce presents the 2019 Santa Monica Organization of Women Leaders (OWL) International Women's Day Breakfast to kick off Women's History Month, held at 7:30 AM on March 11, 2019 at Fairmont Miramar Hotel & Bungalows. This year's honorees, called "OWLies," include Presidential Candidate, Spiritual Teacher, Global Lecturer, Activist, and Best-selling Author Marianne Williamson, along with Mentor and Community Advocate, Apple Music's Julie Pilat.

Echoing the call among women to spend 2019 rising to equality, justice and power, the annual breakfast champions groundbreaking women leaders and their achievements in business and society from around the nation. Williamson and Pilat join the company of past award-winning recipients including actress Jennifer Garner, CALIFORNIALIST founder Bettina Duval, documentary director Amy Ziering and Assistant City Manager Elaine Polachek, among others.

Notes Laurel Rosen, "The Santa Monica Chamber is thrilled to honor Marianne Williamson and Julie Pilat as the 2019 Outstanding Women Leaders (OWLies). Each year the business community joins together to support this meaningful breakfast. Women understand the need to convene and celebrate International Women's Day and the women being honored that make a difference to so many.”

The annual event is hosted by OWL, a Santa Monica Chamber Committee celebrating and inspiring women to join and develop personally and build success for their business through networking and partnerships, enhancing the wellbeing of each other and the community.
